What is Magellan X?

Magellan X is a technology company created by BCG (Boston Consulting Group) and MISC (Petronas Group).

We enable Oil & Gas, and other industrial companies, to meet their safety and sustainability obligations through purpose-built IIoT/AI technological solutions.

Created in 2019, the business generated revenues of $7m in 2022, has a sales pipeline worth $1bn+, and is on-track for an IPO in a few years.

Magellan X is raising Series B funding to accelerate growth and become autonomous.
